

Appendix 3. Songs and Hymns Celebrating Names and Titles of Jesus Christ

Selected by Dr. Ralph F. Wilson, Author of the JesusWalk Bible Study Series www.jesuswalk.com as part of Names and Titles of Jesus (JesusWalk Publications, 2016), www.jesuswalk.com/names-jesus/

One of the reasons for this study of the names and titles of Jesus is to know him more fully, in ways that we hadn't explored before. To enter into this takes time in meditation and worship.

Songs and hymns are ways that we use the names and character of Jesus in our worship. To help those designing worship services around the names and titles of Jesus, and to facilitate personal worship, I have tried to include some of the most popular hymns and songs that I could find among the tens of thousands in the CCLI Song Select and Cyber Hymnal databases. I've looked for songs that actually include names and titles somewhat prominently, though that is a judgment call. These are included at the end of every lesson, and for all lessons in Appendix 3 available online. Special thanks in compiling these lists to: Brittney Land, David Pabalate, Darrel Fink, and Jonathan Fink.

If you'd like to learn some of these songs, you'll probably find one or more of them by searching on YouTube.com. It's a great sing-along resource for your personal devotions and will help you learn the songs.

Many songs relate more to the names and titles of God, rather than Jesus. Here, we're focusing on the songs that relate more to Jesus. Songs that focus on God the Father can be found in my companion volume, Names and Titles of God (JesusWalk, 2010).

1. Jesus the Nazarene Carpenter's Son
